From Christopher Nolan comes the epic action thriller based on the miracle evacuation of Allied soldiers from the beaches of Dunkirk. This is a world of duty, of sacrifice, of survival. Humanity faces a system of seemingly insurmountable odds. The story of that during the World War II, an unsung hero (Mark Rylance) takes to sea as a pilot to rescue Allied soldiers from the beaches of Dunkirk. He encounters a system of seemingly insurmountable odds. The story of the evacuation that would come to be known as one of the greatest military operations in history is told through the experiences of a few small boatmen who risk everything for the people they love, would not take place. It is a story about courage, sacrifice, and survival in the face of impossible odds. It is also a story about the bonds of friendship and the strength of the human spirit. It is a story about the power of hope and the importance of remembering those who gave their all for our freedom. It is a story about the enduring legacy of Dunkirk and the people who lived there. And it is a story about the importance of never forgetting the sacrifices that were made in order to preserve our way of life.

The film provides a riveting, heart-stopping, and humanizing account of the evacuation of hundreds of thousands of Allied soldiers from the beaches of Dunkirk. It is a story that is told through the eyes of a pilot named Guernica who takes to sea to rescue Allied soldiers from the beaches. It is a story that is told through the eyes of a woman named Ellen who is separated from her husband and children and must brave the ocean to reunite with them. It is a story that is told through the eyes of a group of soldiers who must evade capture and make their way to safety. And it is a story that is told through the eyes of a German soldier who is haunted by the memories of the war he has fought.

The film is a testament to the strength of the human spirit in the face of overwhelming odds. It is a story about the power of hope and the importance of remembering those who gave their all for our freedom. It is a story about the bonds of friendship and the strength of the human spirit. It is a story about the enduring legacy of Dunkirk and the people who lived there. And it is a story about the importance of never forgetting the sacrifices that were made in order to preserve our way of life.

It is a story that is told through the eyes of a pilot named Guernica who takes to sea to rescue Allied soldiers from the beaches. It is a story that is told through the eyes of a woman named Ellen who is separated from her husband and children and must brave the ocean to reunite with them. It is a story that is told through the eyes of a group of soldiers who must evade capture and make their way to safety. And it is a story that is told through the eyes of a German soldier who is haunted by the memories of the war he has fought.
A Plastic Ocean + Intro
Fri 8 Sept, 9pm (bar from 7pm)
Don’t let the title fool you, there is something truly amazing about this film. The shocking truth about the consequences of plastic pollution on our oceans is presented with a captivating storyline. After watching this film, you will want to share it with everyone and start making changes to help our marine wildlife. Come and experience this powerful story with us and make a difference.

The Jarmar Award
A special screening of the documentary film ‘The Jarmar Award’
Wed 16 November, 7.30pm
‘The Jarmar Award’ is a unique and personal exploration of the life and work of a British sculptor. The film is a portrait of a man who lived a life of creativity and adventure, and whose work continues to inspire others today. Join us for this special screening and learn more about the life and achievements of this remarkable artist.

Cafe Bar
info@plymouthartscentre.org | 01752 206114 | www.plymouthartscentre.org | Plymouth Arts Centre Live Tickets:
Standard £9.00 / Concessions, students, OAPs £7.75 / Matinees £7.00  / Bringing in Baby £8.50
(Advance booking recommended)